

KIDSPACE GUIDELINES

KidSpace Access

- Children 6 weeks-13 with KidSpace membership may utilize KidSpace for up to two hours each day.
- A reservation is required for children under 2 and can be made up to 10 days in advance.
- Parents/guardians will be required to present a valid CA-issued ID card or member number in order to drop off/pick up a child. If a picture is not in the computer, parents/guardians will be asked for their photograph to be taken.
- Guests will be admitted based on same day availability. There is an $8 guest fee for each visit to KidSpace and must be paid at the time of the visit. This fee allows the non-member to utilize KidSpace for up to two hours that day. This fee does not provide admission to the fitness club. Guest passes may not be used to pay for KidSpace admission.

Health & Safety

- Children exhibiting acute signs of illness will be not permitted to visit KidSpace that day.
- Parents must remain in the facility at all times while the children attend KidSpace.
- Ensure your child visits in close toed shoes. For the safety of the children, Crocs, flip flops, etc. are not allowed during Kidspace visits.
- Outside food is not permitted within Kidspace.

Other important information

- Parents are responsible for all diaper changing during the child's visit to KidSpace.
- Columbia Association staff are not responsible for toys, money and other personal items your child may bring to the program. Toy weapons cannot be brought to the program at any time.
- iPods, handheld video games and other electronic toys cannot be brought to the program at any time.
- Your child may attend KidSpace for two hours each day while you utilize the fitness facilities. If children are not picked up within two hours, you will be assessed a late pickup fee. The charge is $5 for the first 1-5 minutes and $15 for every 15 minute increment thereafter. The late fee must be paid before the child's next visit to KidSpace.
